(TEXT OF BILL BEGINS ON NEXT PAGE)

1       Whereas, 183 students from Highland High School in Gilbert, Arizona 2 voluntarily donated more than 7,000 hours during a 3½-year-period to 3 meticulously reconstruct the Battle of Palmetto Ranch under the able guidance 4 of their teacher, Mr. Glen Frakes; and

5       Whereas, this Battle fought at Palmetto Ranch was considered to be the 6 final conflict of the War Between the States; and

7       Whereas, through an intricately assembled diorama composed of 750
8 soldier figurines and a 5,000-piece steamboat, constructed by Ken Loyd, 9 Highland High School students recreated this battle and celebrated our 10 nation's military history; and

11      Whereas, these students patriotically and selflessly gave of their 12 hearts, minds and time to recreate this diorama with the intent to display it 13 in a military museum for all students of history and future generations 14 across this nation to enjoy; and

15      Whereas, these students, those that preceded them and those that 16 followed them over the past 21 years have donated similar labors and several 17 dioramas to the Texas Military Forces Museum under the directorship of 18 Brigadier General John C. Scribner, who encouraged, supported and directed 19 them through the first two years of their project, and shared their joy in 20 educating the public about our nation's military heritage.
